CHARLES M. MERRY — — PRINCIPAL

Hughes High School has been since 1919 under the wise and understanding guidance of Mr. Charles M. Merry. His office door has been open to thousands of students day in, day out. He has had good counsel and material help for those who needed it. His keen personal interest in the boys and girls at Hughes has established bonds of friendship between principal and students. Mr. Merry, for all that you have done for Hughes and for us, we, the student body of Hughes, salute you!

A HISTORY OF HUGHES

Over a century ago, a man neither great nor rich, died on December 26, 1824. He was a cobbler; his name, Thomas Hughes. At his death he was able to provide for that of which he had always dreamed, free education for the children of Cincinnati. A fortnight before he died he drew up his will leaving his property to the City of Cincinnati for public education. Five trustees were named to administer the property. For ten years the income on this property was used to help pupils in the privately owned Woodward College.

A lot for a high school was bought in 1845 on Ninth Street between Race and Vine. No building was erected here, however. In 1851 this was sold, and a new lot at the corner of Fifth and Mound was purchased. In September of that year Hughes and Woodward became free public high schools.

July 1852 marked the first commencement exercises in Cincinnati. Students from both high schools participated but all four graduates were from Hughes. The following year students moved into the newly completed building at Fifth and Mound. The original name of Hughes High School was Central School. It was opened, with Mr. H. H. Barney as its principal, in the basement of the Lutheran Church on Walnut Street in 1847. The following year it moved to Longworth Street between Race and Elm. After 1851 it was known as Hughes High School and soon moved into its new residence.

Mr. Barney was principal at Hughes for one more year. He then became State School Commissioner. Following Mr. Barney were R. Cyrus Knowlton and Dr. J. L. Thornton. In December 1873 Mr. E. W. Coy took over his duties as principal from Mr. John M. Edwards. Mr. Coy remained the principal until 1919 when Mr. C. M. Merry was appointed. Toward the end of Mr. Coy's term of service Hughes once again changed its address. The new building was erected on the corner of Clifton Avenue and McMillan Street in what was then called Fairview Heights.

The cornerstone of the new building, which originally cost $1,000,000, was laid on Friday, October 16, 1908. At the time a copper box was deposited in a stone case. The new Tudor building contained about one hundred rooms compared to its seventeen of the old building, and was made to accommodate 1500 pupils.

Later this seemingly ample space was found to be inadequate. In 1924 the "new building" was started as an annex and completed the following year. With this addition, Hughes was able to house three thousand pupils.

In 1852 four students graduated; this year more than five hundred. When we graduate we will not be alone. With us will be the thousands of souls who also owe their start in life to a poor cobbler, Thomas Hughes.

ENCOURAGEMENT - WISE COUNSEL

MRS. ELMA R. ROBINSON
Girls' Adviser

DEAR Friends of the Class of 1941:

Your high school achievements have been recorded and transcribed. May you take with you the realization that, in school, or out of school, the character of your transcription depends upon the quality of your recording.

Sincerely,

Elma R. Robinson

ARTHUR J. HAVLOVIC
Assistant Principal

FOR four years you, the class of '41, have received the guidance and admonitions of the Hughes faculty and have been exposed to the traditions of the school. As you leave, my wish for you is the hope that you have absorbed ideals and ethics to help guide you through the years to come. May you be especially tolerant in your opinions and expressions during the uncertain period in which we now find ourselves.

THE FINE ARTS

Boys and girls in the art classes at Hughes learn to use the air brush, to cut linoleum blocks, to paint and letter posters, as well as to make lovely things in metal and leather. Color harmonies and principles of design stress what is beautiful and satisfying.

Seldom are walls bare in the architectural and mechanical drawing rooms because the exhibits of blue prints, plans and technical tools adorn them. All the students are boys,—but no, there is one girl, and perhaps another.

Be it singing, playing an instrument, listening to the music of the masters, there is always activity in 306, 302a, 401, and 107, where chorus, choir, orchestra, band, glee clubs, music appreciation and harmony groups meet.

The industrial arts classes train boys to make things both useful and beautiful. The mechanical drawing classes blue print stage props and other projects for the boys in woodworking. Hughes has a foundry, machine shop, and print shop. The girls in cooking, sewing and home making classes know how to spell comfort, delicious food, and good looking clothes. The gym work helps students to keep fit, agile, strong, and happy.

ALBUM OF SENIOR RECORDINGS

EACH of his four years at Hughes is important to a Hughes student, but the senior year has its own special significance.

Seniors are often the chairmen of the organizations, editors of the senior publications, and representatives of Hughes in state athletic, dramatic, and musical events. Underclassmen regard the seniors with respect. The upperclassmen know the school and the faculty; they are at home in the big building. This "Senior Album" is devoted exclusively to the seniors of 1941. May they find in its recordings a permanent reminder of their classmates!

CLASS OFFICERS

Charlotte Beiser, Secretary; Dick Ward, President; Eugene Wolfe, Treasurer;
Peggy Maish, Vice-president.

AS another school year ends, experiences at Hughes become memories for another class, the students who for four years have been signing their names with '41.

In the autumn of 1937, these students were bewildered freshmen who were having difficulty adjusting themselves to new routines, and were completely ignorant of the multitude of experiences and opportunities awaiting them. In February of '38, just when things were going along beautifully, they had their first taste of high school examinations. Having survived these, they began looking forward to "There Was a Merry Prince," presented by Sages, and the Choral Club's operetta, "The Chimes of Normandy." By that time they were well acquainted with Hughes traditions.

Another year rolled by, and they of '41 became sophomores—still the underdogs of the juniors and seniors, but lords, in their small way, over the new freshmen. This was the year of the Sesqui-Centennial, the Lambeth Walk, Transcontinental Highways, "Stage Door," and glory for the Big Reds. In November, Captain Carl docked his Showboat at Hughes, and the class of '41 saw Hughes' only victory over Withrow, in their four years' stay. In the spring they saw another and even greater operetta, "The Red Mill."

In their next year the class, now juniors, began to gain recognition. They took active parts in such productions as "Adam and Eva," "The Old Professor's School Daze," and the Spring Concert. Then came the most important event of the year, the junior class election. After excited voting and revoting, they chose such leaders as Dick Ward, Peggy Maish, Charlotte Beiser, and Eugene Wolfe.

At last came the long awaited year of graduation, and they were seniors! They had the privilege of regular class meetings, and planned their social program. They became known as the gentlemen of 312, and the ladies of 112 and 205. They were the leaders in all the big events of the school year: Owen Holmes, Clifton Butcher, and Italia Mazzei in "Death Takes a Holiday"; Helen Holland, Mark Peterson, and Max Sanks, in "Sweethearts," and Roy Merritt and George Bagel of ASCAP vs. BMI. Jean Rowe and Clifton Butcher headed the Annual Staff, with Dorothy Platt and Nelson Stone directing the business administration.

As all thoughts turn to graduation, the seniors make the most of their last few weeks at Hughes, and bid farewell to their teachers and friends with promises to come back and visit next year.

ALBUM OF

PRESS, PLAY, PEOPLE

Records are made of hard rubber which has been scratched to reproduce sound when they are replayed. The quality of the piece played depends not only upon the material of the record, but upon the depth to which the needle penetrates the material. Subjects taken at school cut a groove in the record of our lives; but the groove may be rough or shallow. Related activities deepen impressions; honor organizations sharpen grooves, and hobby societies provide for better tone. Clubs are essential to school life — they help rough records receive renovating wrinkles. The following records show the extracurricular activities at Hughes.

HUGHES CLUB

Fourth Row: Wagner, Boeh, F. Ward, Hilmer, Shepark, Vaughn, Lipman, Gronaur, Vandegriff.
Third Row: Hoff, Hoorman, Mueller, Cohen, Nielander, Maloney, Rhodes, Gilmore, Bolten.
Second Row: Grossheim, Kaplan, Hirschberg, Kaplan, Sadler, Ward, Ball, Kammerer, Bradford, Osterbrock.

SENIOR boys invite juniors to join Hughes Club in March, so that they may become used to the responsibilities and privileges of the organization which does much to promote school spirit and to further the interests of Hughes. Newton Pell is the president of this group which meets every Friday night at the Central Y.M.C.A. for the purpose of discussion, education, and enjoyment. Hughes Club works, but plays too. Every spring comes the week-end hike sponsored by a number of the men teachers and the Hughes Club leader, Mr. Havlovic.

We are the gentlemen of the Law,
In our character there is no flaw,
When students are bad and go astray,
We are the ones who make them pay.

The boys of Hi-Y try to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian character. This club which is known all over the nation has a splendid chapter at Hughes High School. In 1941 the members who were chosen were headed by an able president, Pat Ward. They have made themselves a credit to the school. The meetings consist of discussions, conferences and varied social and athletic activities. Mr. Arch Lang is Hi-Y adviser.

HONOR LEAGUE GIRLS SERVE HUGHES

HONOR LEAGUE is an organization for the purpose of promoting high ideals among the girls of the senior class. During the first part of the year, as Freshies' Aids, Honor League girls guided bewildered freshmen through the maze of rooms and halls and made them feel at home. Deep down in their hearts will remain forever the memory of the party for their "Little Sisters." A play written and directed by Alice Bowman was the feature of this party. The meetings, which are planned by the executive committee, are a source of interest to all the girls. Two featured Shulamith Gootman, who spoke on Palestine and Mabel Chen, who spoke about life in China. This cooperative spirit, together with the aid of its never tiring sponsor, Miss Julia Bentley, has made this organization successful.

WORLD FELLOWSHIP

SPEAKERS and programs in G. R. meetings have dealt with our American neighbors and the necessity for world fellowship. The Girl Reserves and their sponsor, Miss Anna Diltz Holton, believe that the G. R. ideals which are expressed in their code can best be taught and maintained by actual application.

Serving as the closing link in the bond which unites all students of Latin, the Latin Club of Hughes High School presented various programs of interest during the year 1941. These programs featured not only student speakers but a climax in the presentation of Prof. Bittenweiser of University of Cincinnati who discussed "Latin Manuscripts of the Middle Ages." Miss Julia Bentley is the sponsor with whom other teachers of Latin cooperate.

SPANISH LINKS THE AMERICAS

OFFICERS

L. Hodges, V.-Pres.; D. Roth, Pres.; W. Vaughn, Treas.; R. Hoff, Sec'y.

La Tertulia, the Spanish Club, aims to extend the use of Spanish outside the classroom. Meetings are conducted in Spanish as far as possible. Songs, games, playlets, and talks on matters of interest to Spanish students, give more practice in the use of the language and more information concerning Spanish customs than it is possible to give in the brief classroom periods. Miss Helen King is our helpful sponsor. This year we have stressed Pan-Americanism and we were so fortunate as to have a talk by Mr. George Magoral, Spanish announcer of WLWO, about broadcasts to Latin America.

La Tertulia has suffered the loss of a faithful friend and teacher in the death of Miss Mabel Schell, who frequently added to the interest of our meetings with stories of her visits to Mexico and Spain.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

This year the club, under the supervision of Miss Ruth Helman, has spent its time in pleasant and helpful ways. After an inspiring talk by two representatives of "Bundles for Britain," the number who belong to this crusade was increased and knitting needles clicked over blue and gray wool. Some girls crocheted, arranged, and sewed together a beautiful afghan; others worked on a knitted one, both to be sent to England. Socks, sweaters, mittens, and wristlets were knitted, while other members sewed on children's garments. Other speakers from the outside gave interesting talks and we entertained our mothers with a tea and fashion show.

Third Row: Westermeier, Cochran, Bergman, Bower, Dundes, Kueffner, Appel, Wolfe, Piper, E. Second Row: Bottomley, Gillespie, Betscher, Schaim, Kuethe, Mirsky, Walters.

Seated: Schied, Seat, Pfefferle, Mauch, Miss Ward, Bowman, Acker.

In room 104 or 103 any Wednesday the fifth bell, Scribblers meet to read and discuss their literary attempts and masterpieces. Be it poetry or prose, sonnet, essay or story, the scribbling is a student's effort to find words for new ideas. Scribblers make their own "assignments." Miss Ward, the originator of "scribbling" at Hughes, sponsors the senior group; Miss Helen Tangeman, the freshman-sophomore writers' colony.

The Hughes magazine, "OLD HUGHES," was up to its usual high standard in 1941. Under the able editorship of Alice Bowman and Charles Lipman, the publication was sparkling and enjoyable. Every one of the six copies contained the cream of the student literary work and other material interesting to Huzites. The editors, co-operating with Elaine Elkins and Jack Gronauer, Business Managers, and Charlotte Beiser, Circulation Manager, were advised by Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer.

Adviser Helen Tangeman.
 Mr. Clyde Hall checks financial records.

Miss Frances Adomeit supervises the art work.

Many things happen during the year which would be forgotten were it not for the Annual. It is the duty of the staff to choose the things they know will interest every one in the years to come.

Football games, honor rolls, elections, entertainments, dances; all these are a part of a student's life at Hughes. The business managers handle the circulation, while the editors plan and execute the book itself. From the art room come drawings and section layouts. The cameramen work hard at photographing the best possible views and most prominent events. With cooperation from these different groups the folks of Hughes High School get a yearbook which is almost entirely student work.

The Drum Majors train for weeks as arduously as the football players. But it's worth it! Eight times a year as his baton twirls through the air, thousands of eyes are fixed on the glittering piece of metal. It spins up and up, and arches to descend on the other side of the goal posts. The Major's hand rises, clutches, and once more the baton is safely spinning in his hands. With a relieved sigh the crowd settles back. The baton did not fall — there is no jinx on the game!

Remember "Sweethearts?" Of course you do! And you certainly recall the Christmas program, and the memorial service for Miss Mabel Schell. All the participants in "Sweethearts" were members of the A Cappella Choir with the addition of the Boys' Glee Club, except Mary Monnes and Clifton Butcher. This year the choir has reached its heights under the direction of Mr. John Molnar. Eight voices from the choir made the recording of the school song that is inside the cover of this volume.

In October Oresteia presented the initial radio program for the series The Treasure Chest heard over WCKY Fridays at 5:15. Later it appeared over WSAI in the series Our Cincinnati Schools.

The choral reading of Christmas poems and a mock broadcast of "Dickens' Christmas Carol" were presented at an open meeting of the club on December 20.

During the second semester time was divided between individual and group programs and the rehearsal for an Easter pageant, "King Robert of Sicily."

On March 1 Lee Smith, Frances Adams, George Freson gave five minute readings of modern poetry at the first poetry festival of the state held at Columbus, Ohio. They had the opportunity of reading before such competent critics as Ralph Dennis, Dean of the School of Speech at Northwestern University.

The musical section of Oresteia is directed by William Fields who finds suitable music to describe the mood of the poetry read. The members of this division are Edwin Frey, Ralph Henderer, Jeanne Kurtz, Norma, Jean Henderer and Mary Marsch. Mrs. Rees is the capable director of the group.

OFFICERS

Eugene Wolfe, president; Alfred Boeh, treasurer; Mark Petersen, vice-president; Tom Applegate, librarian; Paul Vandegriff, secretary.

THIS year the boys in the Glee Club took a big part in "Sweethearts" by forming the main part of the boys' chorus in the operetta. Under the new directorship of Mr. Molnar, the boys have learned many new songs. It is a great delight to all the boys to meet twice a week and sing.

PRODUCTIONS

STAGE crews are the unapplauded stars of every theatrical performance. Few realize that no performance could possibly be a success without the work of those back-stage who are responsible for the scenery, the lighting, the loud-speaker system, and the properties. Hughes is very fortunate in having a very efficient stage crew under the direction of Mr. Elmer Porter. The stage crew has worked with the Sages for each of their productions, has assisted with auditorium sessions, and contributed much to club enterprises.

SAGES

MANY adults judge a school by the records its students establish during their four years. The Sages have been outstanding these past four years, giving "There Was a Merry Prince," "Stage Door," "Seven Sisters," "Adam and Eva," "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," "Through the Night," and "Death Takes a Holiday."

This year under the direction of Miss Erna Krueckemeyer, "The Dictator Visits His Mother" won first prize in a drama festival at U. C. Clifton Butcher was judged the outstanding actor, and Italia Mazzei, Owen Holmes, and Bob Shearman received awards. This play also won the city-wide recreation contest, and was asked to participate in the National contest held at Bloomington, Indiana, the first week of June. Ten members were also entered into the roll of the National Thespians for outstanding work in acting and directing.

NOT CUPIDS NOT DIANAS JUST ARCHERS

The archers organized by Miss Nurre, seek to master the technique of proper form and the art of battering the bull's-eye. They use standard targets and distances, compete with one another for fun and prizes. Every Tuesday afternoon finds them at Coy Field shooting their arrows into the sky, but watching where they fall.

Standing: B. Wells, Sec'y.; Butcher; VanderLeun; Burke, Treas.; Wiggershaus; Smith; Howell; Skirvin, Pres.;
Seated: Sanders; Jones; Monfort.

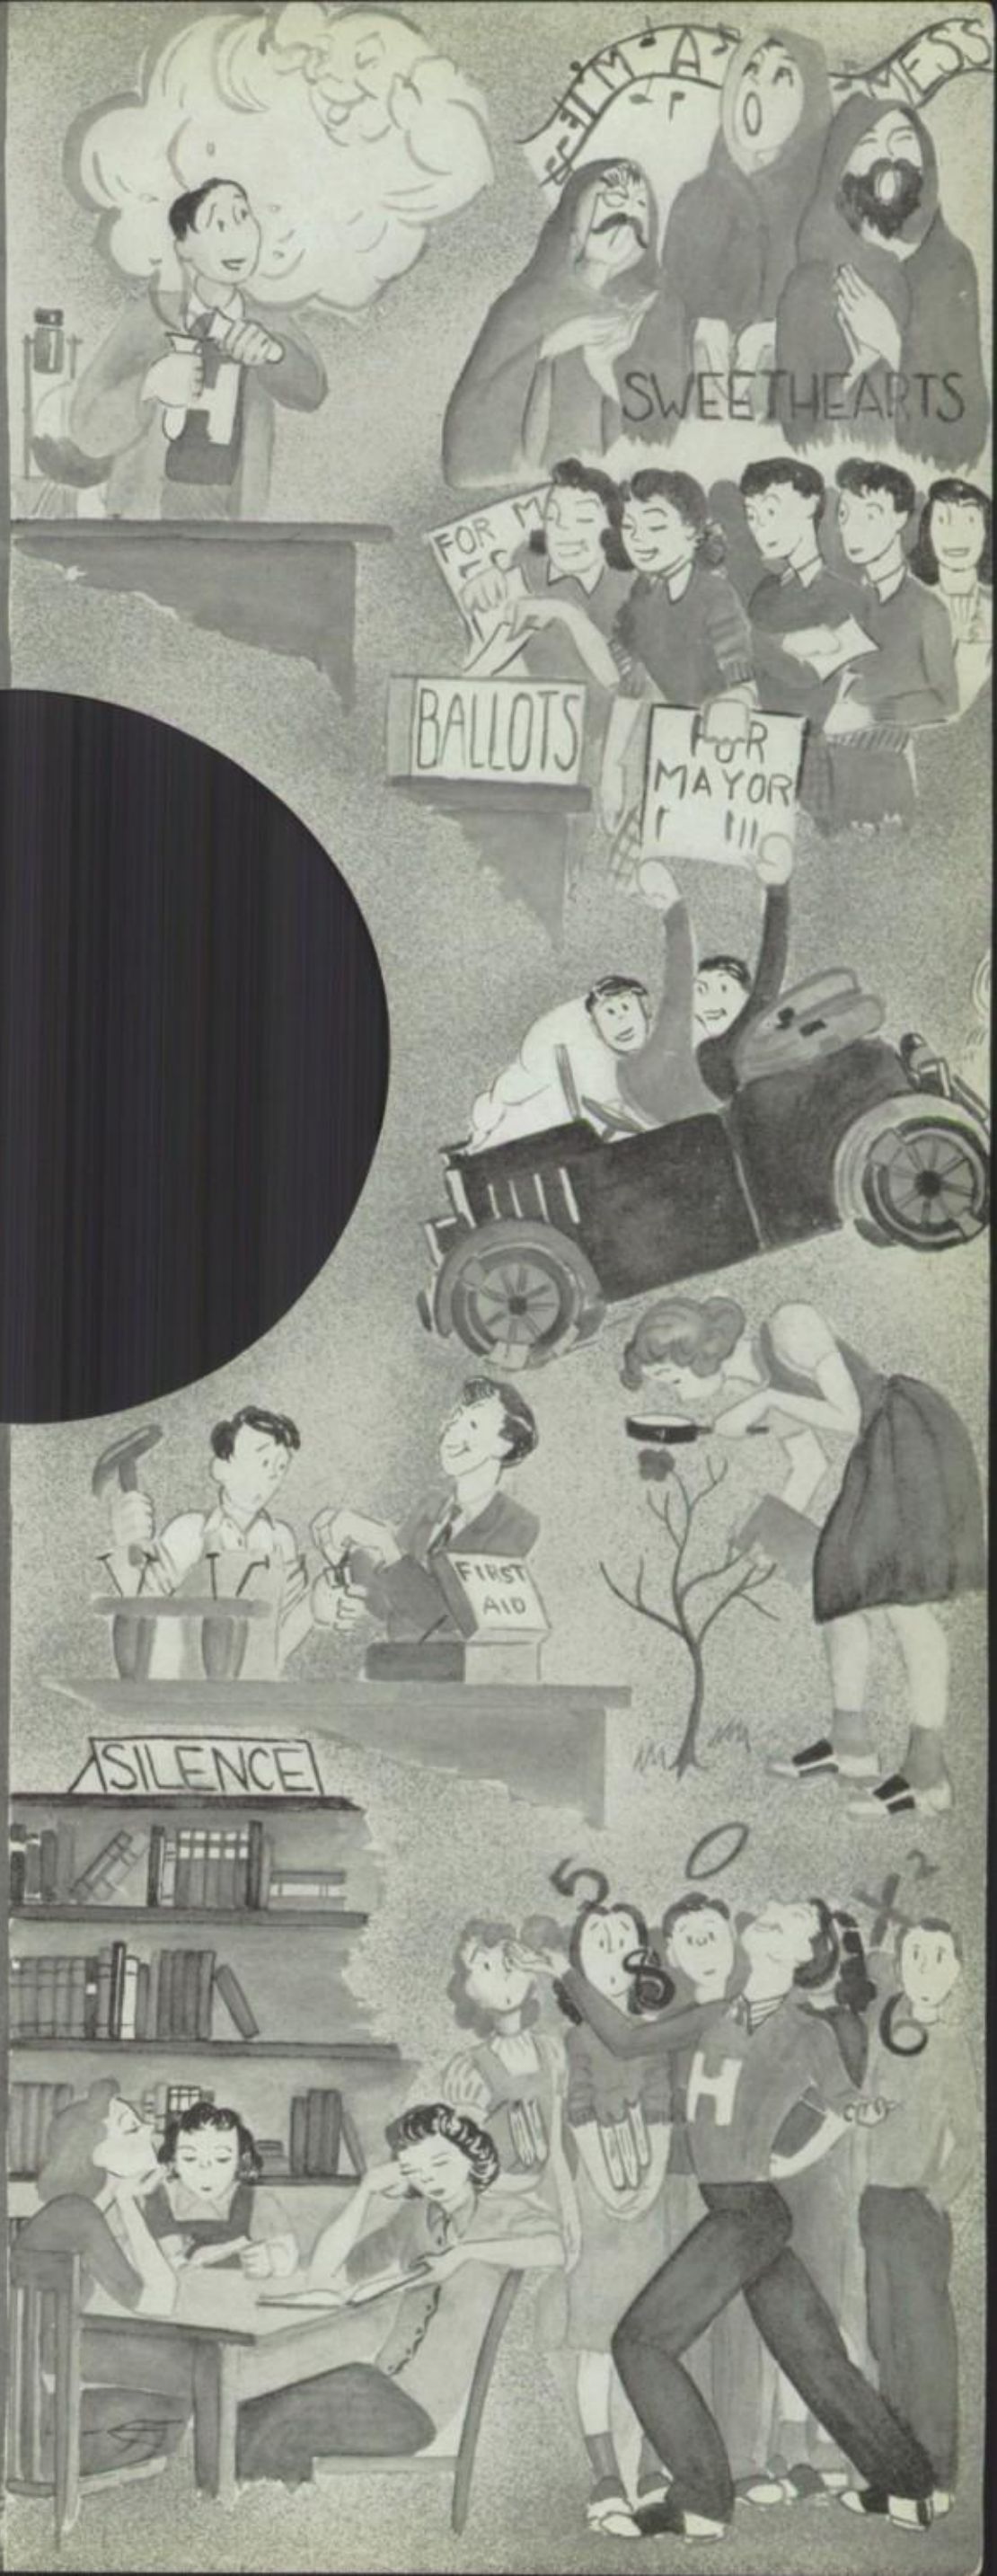

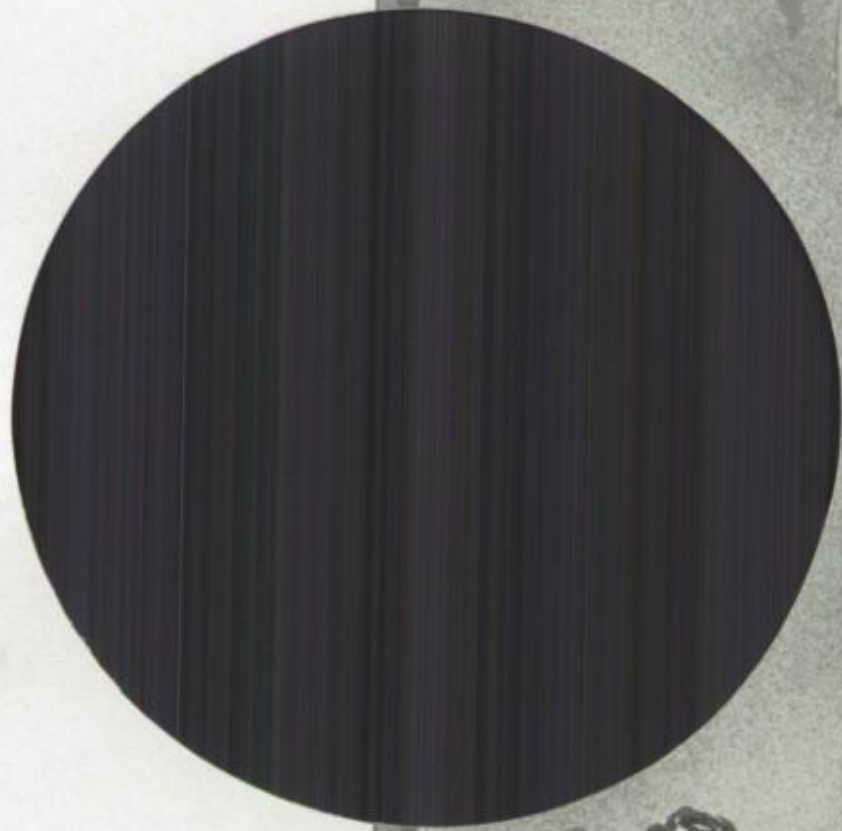

ALBUM OF UNDERCLASSMEN

— A Calendar of the School Year

Although Hughes will regret the departure of her five hundred June graduates, she will be filled with pride when she looks upon the large group of underclassmen who are eager to find their places in the student body. We may scoff at the timid inquiries of the freshmen, but not for long. We note with interest the mingled dignity and prankishness of the sophomores. We welcome the bustling activity of the juniors. To these underclassmen on whom Hughes will depend in the future, we dedicate this album of Hughes Recordings.

Remember eight months ago? We had just entered Hughes for the first time. There were hundreds of rooms and thousands of boys and girls hurrying through the halls. For days we had to rely upon Freshies' Aids to find our class room on time.
Then we fell into the regular order of things, and school no longer seemed confusing.

1940
REUNION

Dick Ward, President of the Class of '41, greets Bob Portune, Horace Lyle, and Allan Whaling at the 1940 reunion. Bob was the editor of last year's Annual, Horace was class president, and Allan edited "Old Hughes." School work in addition to his duties as Stage Manager is too much for Tommy Jackson.

The Choir, conducted by Mr. Molnar, sings at the Christmas auditorium program.

We recognize a characteristic pose of the chairman of Parlaters.

Wimpy takes the money; Mort and Fred Ward check ring sizes; and Hope and that Hunt child record the transactions.

Mabel H. Schell

She wove a tapestry of valiant living

With hands too skilled to knot or break a thread,
And eyes so practiced that without misgiving,

She followed where the Master Craftsman led.
Her colors were the rainbow of man's feeling.

Her texture was the wisdom of rich years,
With books, and ships, and distant shrines revealing
The purpose of man's laughter and his tears.

And those who watched her at her brilliant weaving,
And loved the forthright courage of her soul,
Now view the unfinished masterpiece with grieving,

Yet read the intended pattern of the whole.
For she who used so well red, gold, and blue
Was not afraid of threads of darker hue.

Hazel L. Koppenhoefer

Mabel Hoffman Schell has taught her last class at Hughes. Her own appreciation and joy in life was contagious, and she was sensitive to beauty in all its aspects; but what was most remarkable about her was that with these qualities, she always retained an understanding and sympathy with people of all kinds and classes. A fine sense of humor, a background rich with varied experiences made her a delightful companion, but no attempt to sum up her worth would be complete without reference to a sensitive understanding of the joys and griefs of others and to that rigid sense of duty which was the decisive factor in every important problem of her life.

SWEETHEARTS

"Sweethearts" brought Victor Herbert's music and comedy to two full houses, May 1 and 2. Mary Monnes and Max Sanks sang the romantic leads. Clifton Butcher was the comic villain who fooled the three monks, Paul Vandegriff, Alfred Boeh, and John Bolten, and was in turn taken for a loss by Helen Holland and Mary Monnes. Mark Petersen was the military Beau Brummel, flirting with Annis Garvin's six daughters, Dorothy Ocke, Joan King, Ruth Erricson, Marilyn Hunt, Shirley Levinson, and Ruth Ellis, and also with Helen Holland and Mary Monnes. The outstanding funny bone tickling situations were the entrance of the four monks and their song; Mikels' ironing pantomime; Slingsby's song; and Mikel's welcome by the daughters as their father.

Captain Dick Ward

Playing a tough schedule with only three lettermen back, the Big Reds suffered a rather disappointing season. They were not expected to break any records, but during early season practices, it looked as if there was a chance to spring several surprises. But these were not to materialize; Hughes won only two non-league games and finished last in the Public High School League.

Hughes opened against the team that finished the season as city champs, the Elder Panthers, and went down to defeat, 18 to 0. Next came Norwood, and the Indians again won by one touchdown, just as in the previous year, 7-0.

The Reds hit the win column for the first time when they downed Covington Holmes, 13-0, taking advantage of their first scoring punch.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORDS

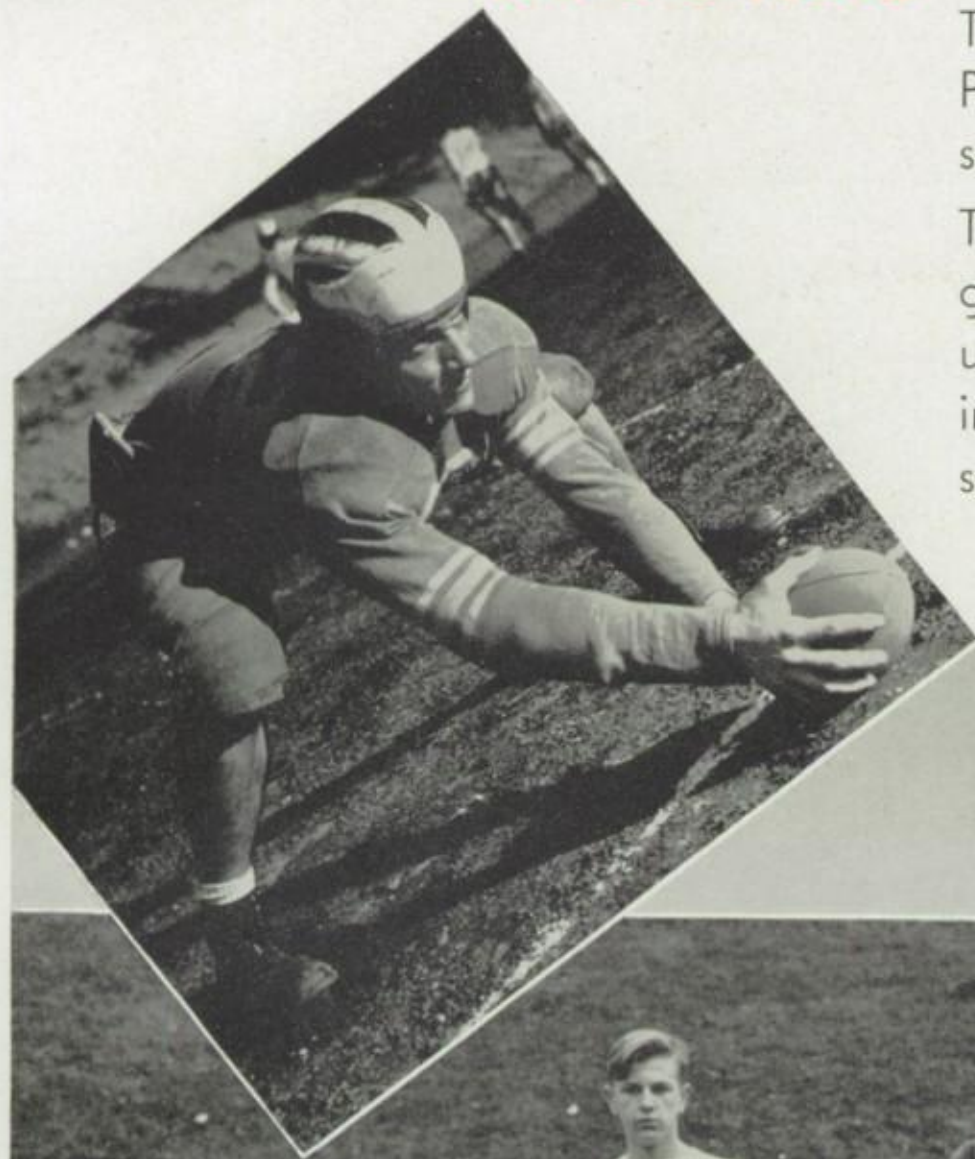

Western Hills, sparked by their two brilliant backs, Klusman and Hudson, made Hughes another step in their undefeated league season by triumphing, 12-0, in a thrill packed battle.

The Reds claimed their second victim in Purcell, scoring three touchdowns in the second half to win easily, 27-6.

The score was the same in the following game, but the boys from Hamilton had the upper hand this time, with their hard charging back, Bill Copenbaker as the individual star.

Ray Hamilton is our center and captain for the 1941 season.

Half-time—"Red" gives the boys instructions

In practice sessions they fight as hard as they do in a game.

A reserve man gets his chance to shine.

Captain Ward (44) is downed in the Woodward tussle.

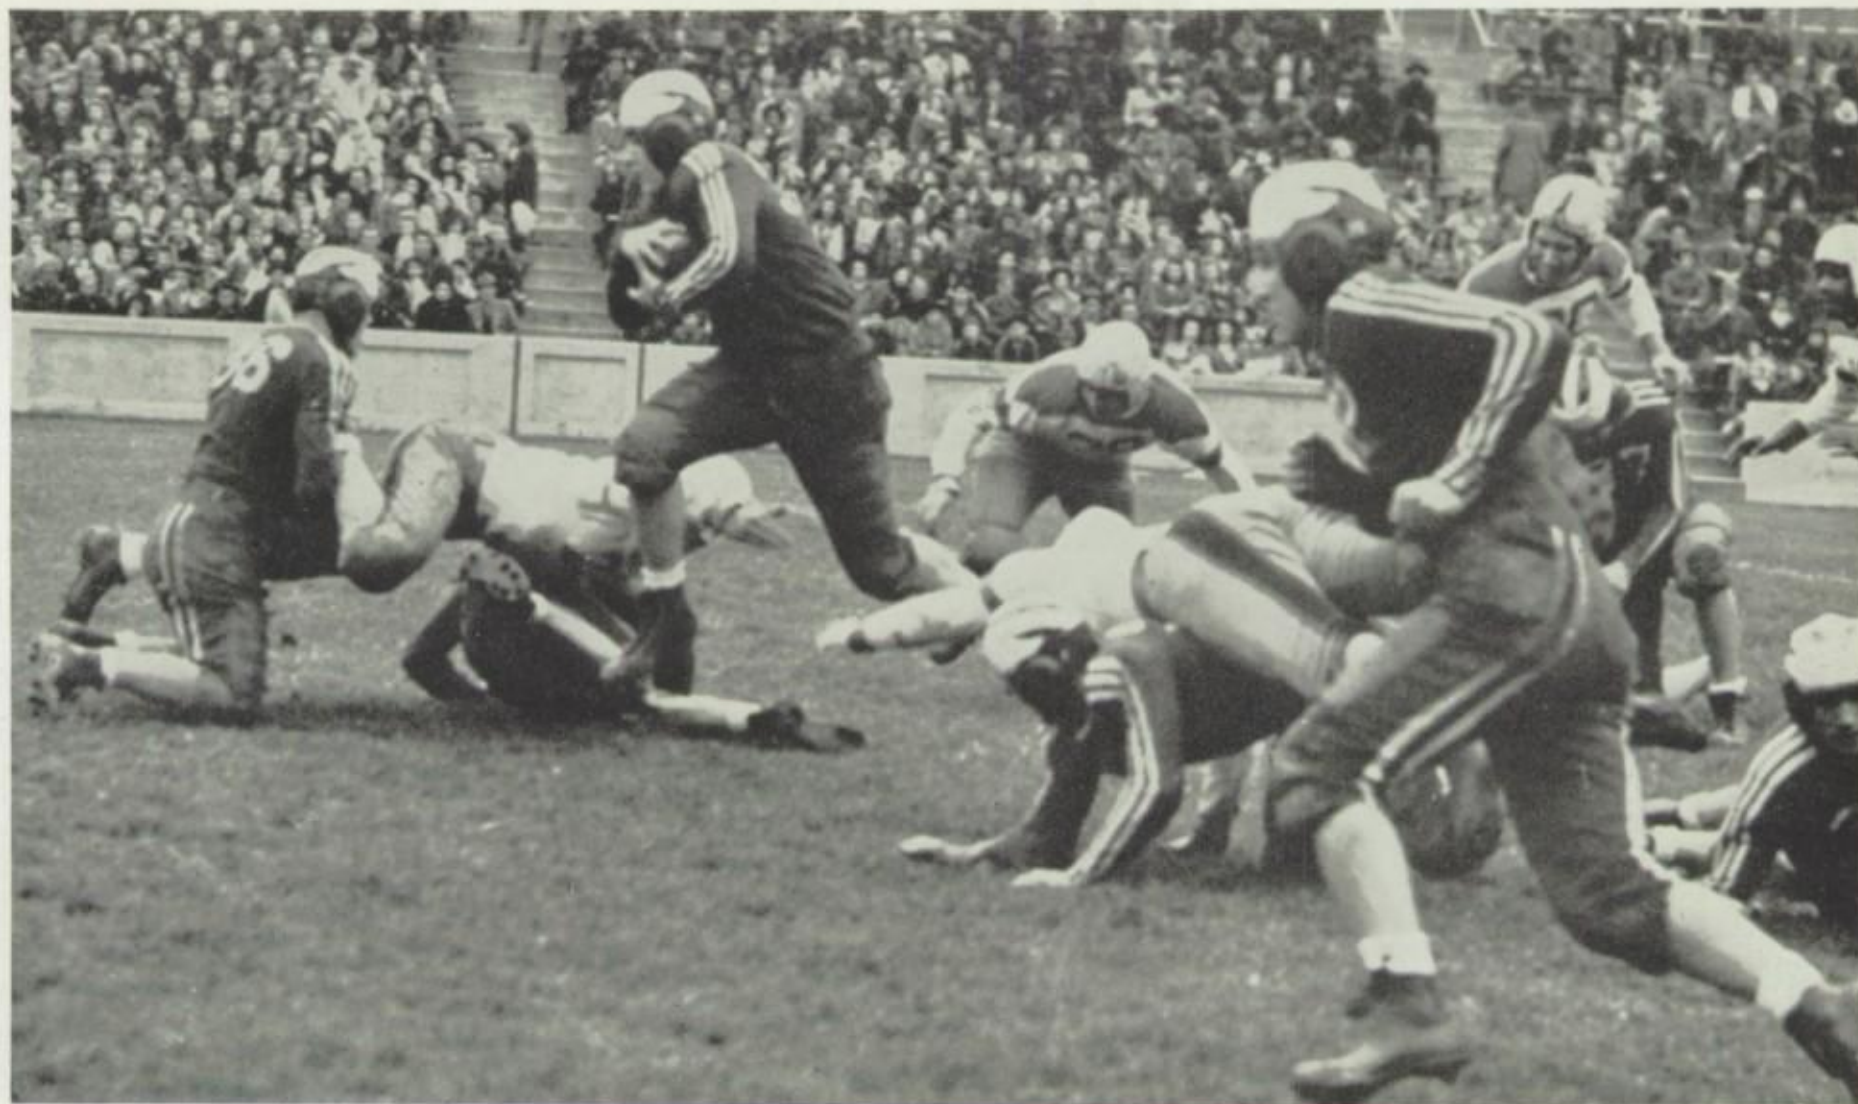

Block that kick!

Al Sabato, Woodward's truly great back, proved his worth as he led his Bulldogs to a 14-12 triumph over the Big Reds in the outstanding game of the year.

The Withrow Tigers put Hughes in the league cellar with a one-sided 18-0 win in the annual battle. This was accomplished even without the services of Bud Pumphrey, Withrow star, who was injured on the first play.

Coach "Red" Krueck awarded eighteen letters to the following boys at the completion of the season; Captain Dick Ward, Charles Lipman, John Capelle, William Dupps, Big Bill Dupps hits that line.

STATE:

March 20	Zanesville	24	Hughes	37
March 21	Massilon	38	Hughes	34

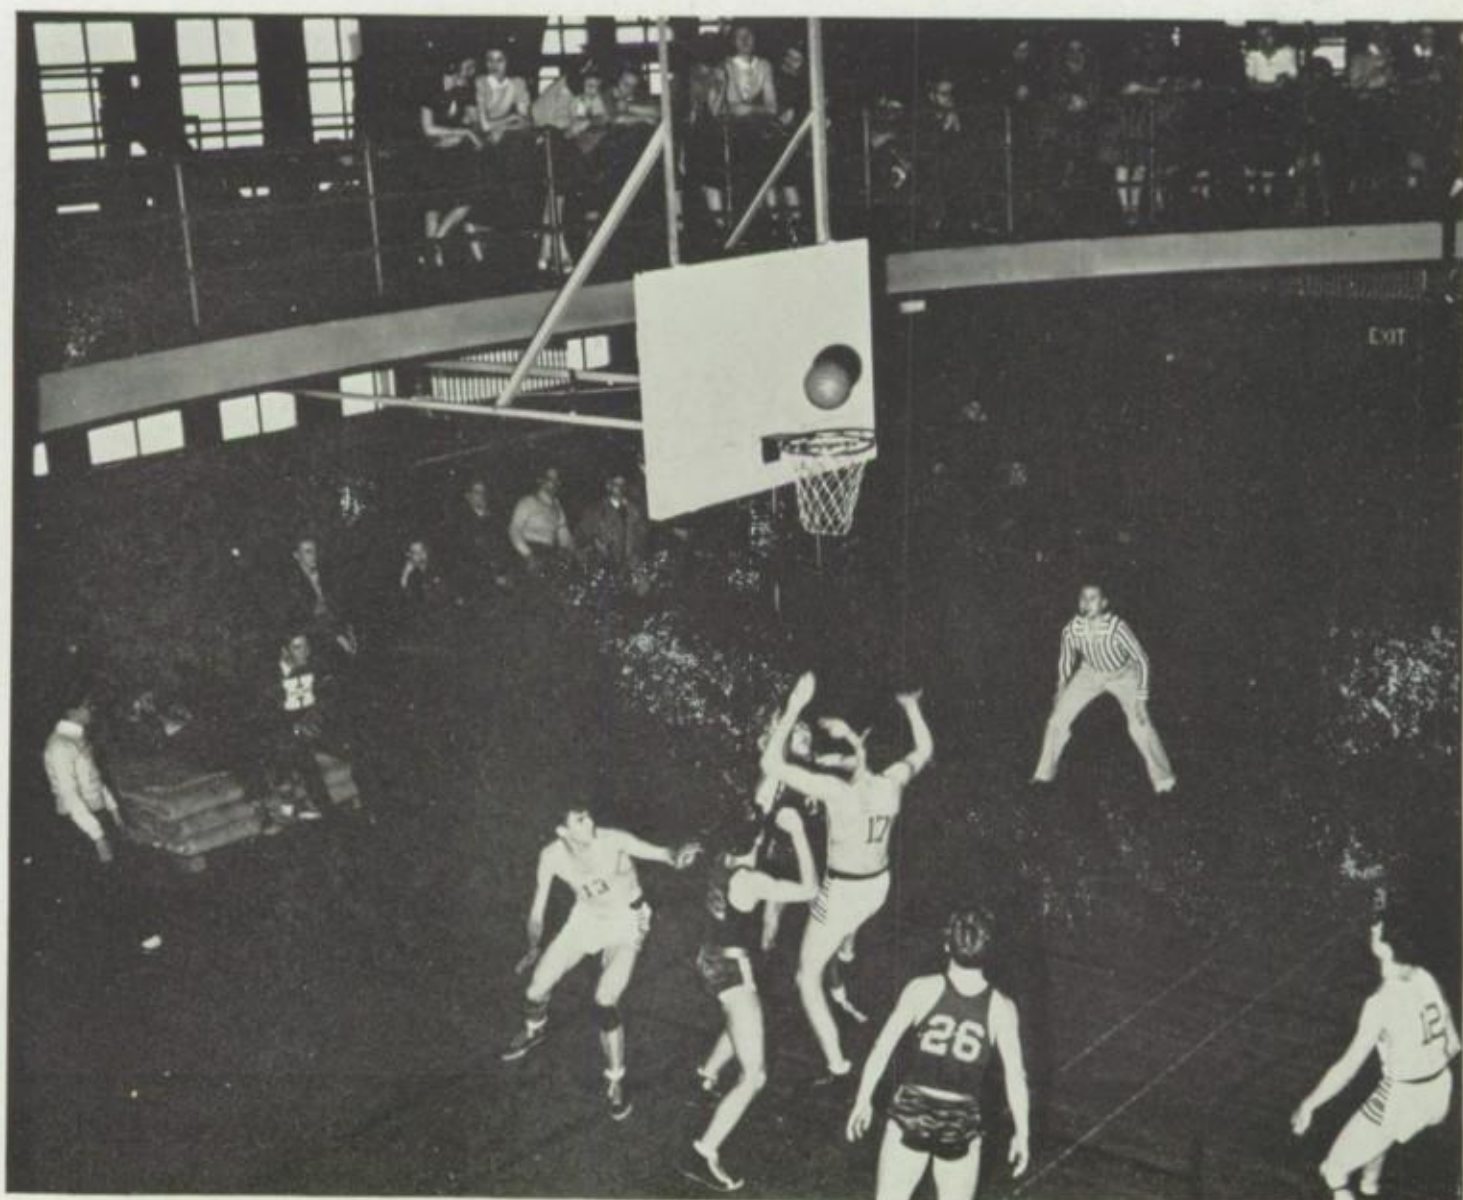

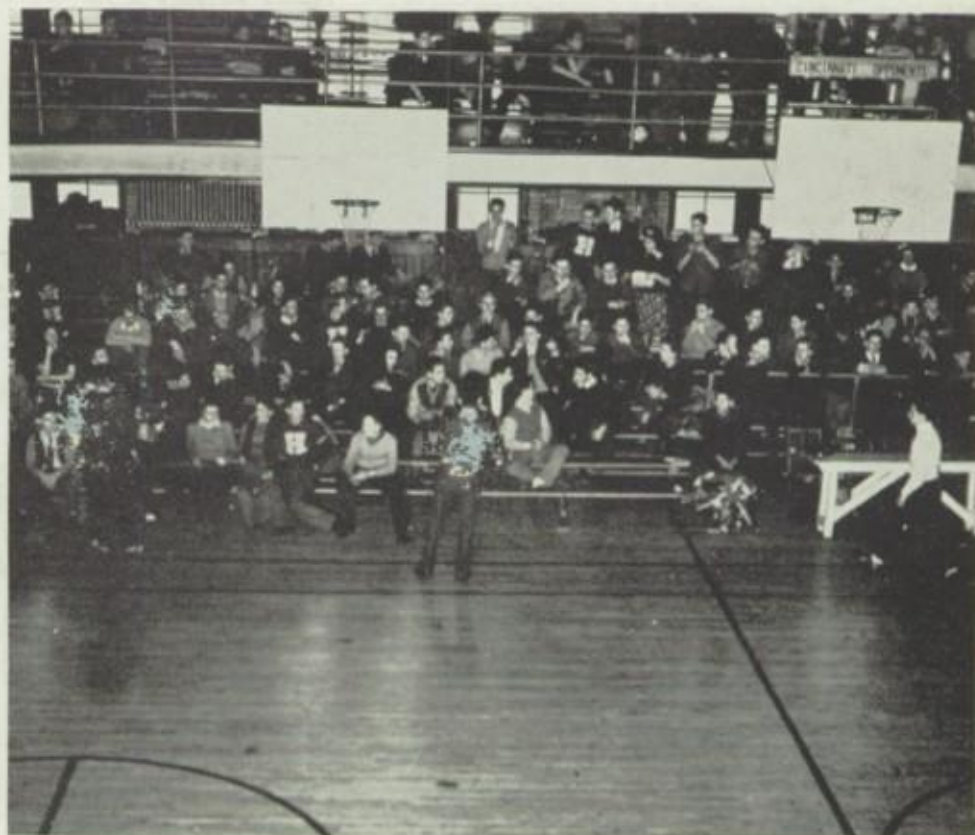

THIS crowd has been at the U. C. Gym to see the Hughes Big Red Basketeers triumph their way to Columbus where they will compete in the State Tournament because they defeated Elder 53-43 in the Southwestern Ohio District Tournament. The Big Reds, coached by Edw. Krueck, ended a very successful season by leading the C. P. H. S. L. title with a perfect record, and winning the S.W.O. D.T. As a season record the Big Reds failed to be in the win column only three times. In the State Tournament Hughes advanced to the Second Round by beating Zanesville 37-24; later they were beaten by Massilon High School 38-34. The Big Reds made a fine record for the season.

We cannot leave this season without giving special mention to Capt. Bob Westerfeld, Johnny Capelle, Phil Finke, Ralph Ludwick, and Tom O'Malley for a splendid hardwood performance during the season of 1941. In the lower left is Captain Westerfeld attempting a field goal in the Hughes-Elder game at St. X. Field House. Lower right shows a little action in the Hughes-Walnut Hills game at U. C.

HARRIERS

THE strong Hughes cross-country team captured the city and district championships. Composed of five seniors, one junior, and one sophomore, this team put up a hard fight in every meet and got results. Ably captained by Conrady, the boys alternately shared the winner's circle, their order being Nehus, Conrady, Schetter and Nehus. Lettermen are Conrady, Captain '41; Nehus, Captain '42; Schetter; Dinger; Fey; Minks; Gandenberger.

COACH Alan Kindschy once again piloted the Hughes volleyball team to a very successful season that lost but one game in all tries. The "spiking" of Captain Westerfeld and the "nursing" of Jack Streckfuss, along with the brilliant playing and cooperation of Ed Schlensker, Bill McFarland, Meyer Rothchild and Jack Roth, helped to make our team the best in the city. The members of the team that received letters were Captain Westerfeld, Jack Streckfuss, Bill McFarland, Meyer Rothchild, Jack Roth, and Manager Phil Mandell.

PLAY BALL

TOO many errors have seemed to be the trouble for the Hughes batmen this year. Favorable scores this year are Hughes 12, Walnut Hills 11; Hughes 4, Walnut Hills 3; Norwood 3, Hughes 7; Hughes 6, Woodward 1. Unfavorable scores are Elder 6, Hughes 2; Western Hills 4, Hughes 3; Norwood 5, Hughes 4; Woodward 9, Hughes 4; Withrow 2, Hughes 1; Western Hills 4, Hughes 2. Mr. Krueck is the baseball coach.

Last Row: C. Felix, R. Rothacker, J. Wilson, W. McFarlan, R. Molter, V. Beckman, H. Arnold. Third Row: R. Fuerst, J. Holtman, R. Huges, F. Norton, T. O'Malley, E. Schlesker. Second Row: R. Rubenstein, J. Dastillung, W. Bryant, D. Fien, A. Kenton. Front: A. Bowen, G. Engel, K. DeLuse. Mgr. W. Schmalfuss (not in picture)

THE Hughes Tennis Team has easily succeeded in defeating their opponents. Under leadership of Apple and C. Thomas the Hughes team has vanquished University School, Elder, Western Hills, Purcell, Hartwell, Withrow and Walnut Hills. The team this year includes N. Apple, C. Thomas, R. Frech, Gene Freeburg, A. Hittle, L. Horstman, D. White, J. Chartock. Mr. Kinschy is the tennis coach.

HUGHES MERMEN

Ray Hamilton, next year's football captain, has his letter in swimming.

DUAL MEET SCORES

Hughes 38	Bellevue, Ky.	16
Hughes 12	Western Hills	54
Hughes 25	Walnut Hills	41

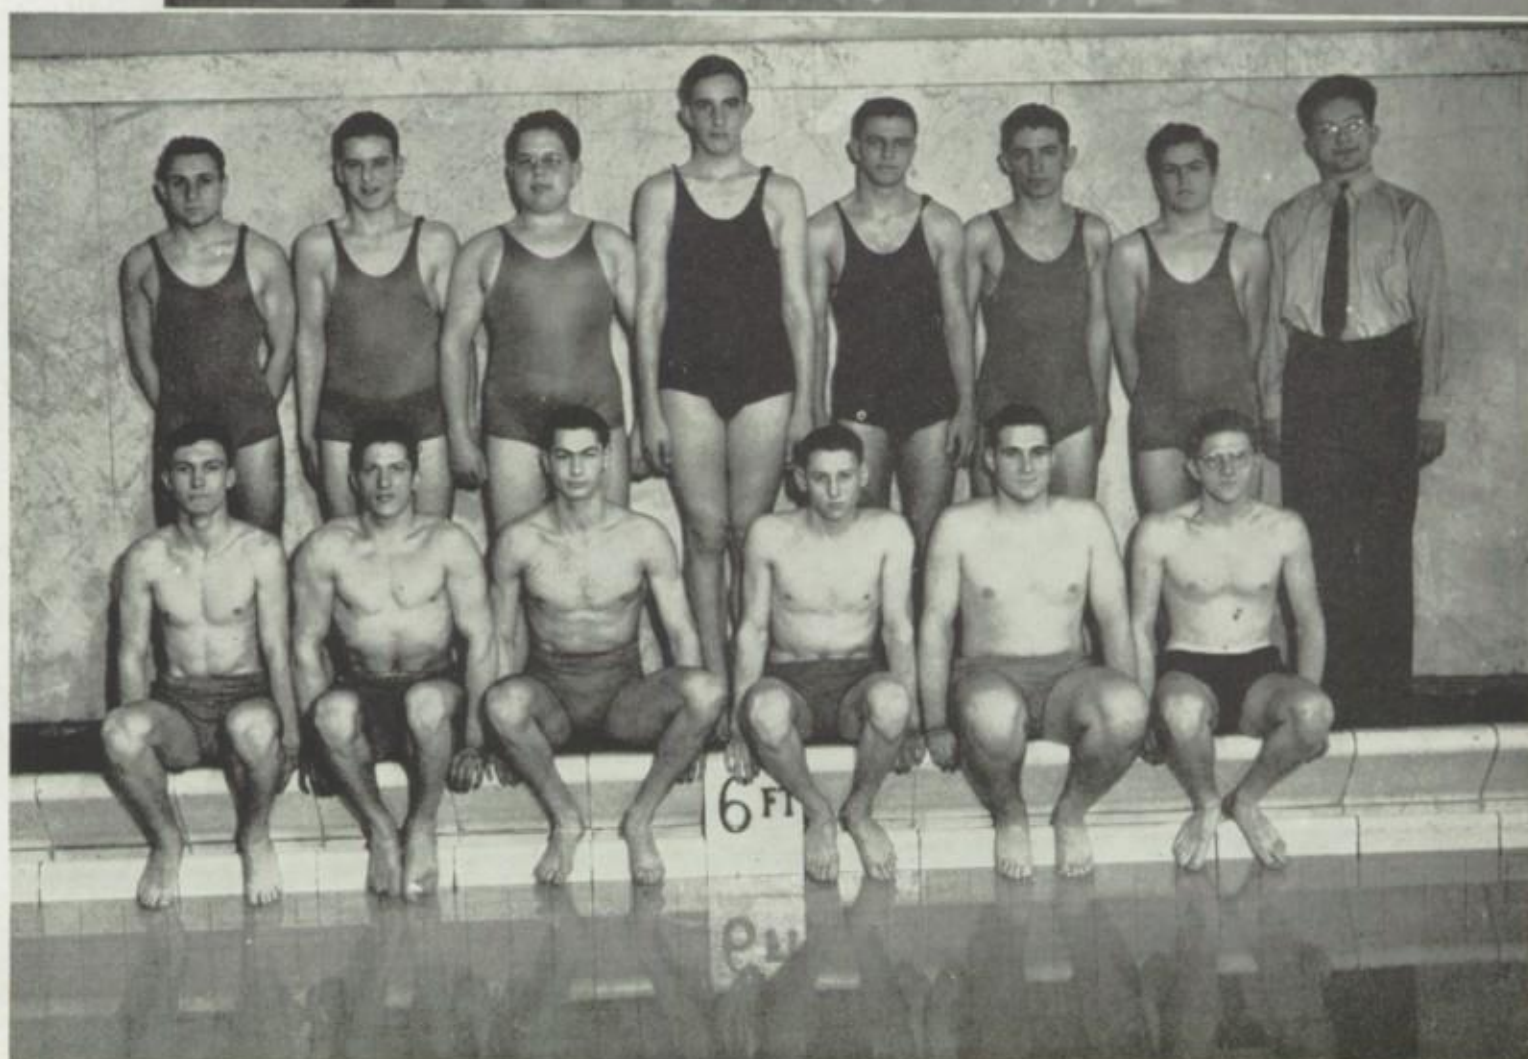

Hughes Swimming Team, Coached by "Uncle" Allan Kindschy, had a fairly good season this year. Although the boys failed to annex any championship titles, they broke a few records and gave their opponents stiff competition in all the meets. The team finished third in the Public High School League after nosing out Withrow in each District Meet. With the return of next year's team, Hughes stands a good chance of getting back in the upper bracket. The members of the team that were awarded letters this year were Ed Horwitz, Elliot Horwitz, Deneal Hoffman, Phil Mandell, Harold Schwartz, Ed Schlensker, Ray Hamilton, Dick Ward, Bob Munz, and Manager Harold Kaplan.

JUNIOR TEAM

SENIOR TEAM

CITY CHAMPS

With both senior and junior teams taking first in all meets, the Hughes Gym Team again won the City Championship by virtually overwhelming its opponents. Keiber, without doubt this year's star performer, is captain of the Gym Team for 1942.

TRACK TEAM

AT the time the Annual went to press the Track Team had a very good standing with two firsts and one third. Next year's team will have almost the same personnel as only Conrady, Dinger, Logan, and Brandt are graduating this year. The five outstanding men were Capelle, Conrady, Hayes, Nehus, and Schwartz. Capelle starred in the shot and discus. Conrady excelled in the mile and was a relay man. Hayes ran the high and low hurdles in excellent form. Schwartz surpassed expectations in the high jump putting him in the upper bracket. Nehus was a steady point gainer in the 880 yard run. Those reasonably in line for letters at the midway of the season besides those mentioned above were Doerman, Dinger, Goodman, Kerman, Wasenic, Lee, Keiber, Schulz, and Bettner.

VOLLEY AND TUMBLE!

VOLLEYBALL

Late fall found an enthusiastic group of girls playing volleyball in eager competition. The girls matched their skill against one another, first in color teams, and then in final class teams. This year the seniors were victorious, putting another gem in their crowns. The sophomores were the runners up.

VOLLEYBALL

Back Row: S. Speckter, M. Wilmer, F. Warmen, S. Battreale, M. Spears, M. Vonderhaar, D. Kistner, P. Thomas, O. Garvin. Center Row: B. Schlemmer, M. Windisch, K. Mapes, G. Heisler, V. Heusley, D. TUMBLING

Poise, timing and steady nerves are essential to the girls who gain skill in the art of tumbling. Many are the falls and bruises until the girls master their stunts.

BASKETBALL

Basketball, an exciting and speedy sport, was taken up this year in mid-winter. Participants soon developed their minds to keen and quick action and soon learned that their hearts must be in the sport, not in victory only. After a very close battle, the senior team stepped ahead of the combined team and received the olive branch.

HOCKEY

When the cold, nipping winds start to blow, in late autumn, a large group of girls use Coy Field to play a game called hockey. Although there are many cuts and bruises, still the girls carry on. This year color teams offered keen competition, but finally ended with the Blue team on top.

RUNNER'S UP—Jolly Five: M. Humig; M. Bertrum; B. Frankeberger; B. Billingsly; Mrs. Flag, advisor.

SET THEM UP— KNOCK THEM DOWN!

WHEN knights were bold the ladies of the court engaged in the modest exercise of lawn bowling. Later men took over this game, changing it slightly to ninepins and duckpins. For many years bowling was purely masculine. Today both sexes participate. Hughes boys have formed a bowling league which contests on Monday afternoons; Hughes girls play on Wednesday.

WINNERS—Hit and Misses: M. Hecker; D. Meyer; N. Flick; E. Hauck; R. Hofmann, capt.; Mrs. Flagg, advisor (standing)

Hughes Girls' Bowling League was comprised this year of twenty teams and competition waged from October to March. At the end, the results were as follows:

1. Hit and Misses	629 pin avg.
2. Jolly Five	540 pin avg.
3. Star Rollers	537 pin avg.
4. Five Jeeps	517 pin avg.
5. Lucky Strikers	575 pin avg.
Five leading individual averages:
1. D. Meyer	143 — 38 games
2. M. Noll	137 — 16 games
3. J. Skirvin	133 — 36 games
4. M. Hecker	133 — 36 games
5. N. Flick	131 — 38 games

Strike? Yes! D. Meyer, the leading bowler who finished the season with an average of 143.

"For when the one Great Scorer comes

To write against your name,
He writes not what you won or lost
But how you played the game."

1940-1941 found the Girls' Athletic Association completing its fourth successful year. This association was formed for the benefit of the modern athletic girl—to enable her to compete in open competition—to develop sportsmanship, leadership and physical beauty.

OFFICERS: Seated: P. Ballard, Treas.; E. Hauck, Pres.; S. Brezowski, V. Pres. Standing: B. Zackery, Sec'y; M. Hecker, Pub.; E. Eberfield; G. Koeninger.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

BOOTS AND SADDLE

Did inexperience or hay fever, fear of bruises and sore spots, keep the girls from entering the Riding Club, this year? No! The club, under the guidance of Miss Balastra, meeting twice a month, rode at Clearview Stables or in the winter at Carthage Fair. A Moonlight Ride in May was a great success. The plans of the club for next season have already reached the sky.

RIDING CLUB: D. Lodwick, M. Beaman, K. Tsaras, J. Lueders, W. Wolfrum, B. Back, W. Nester, B. Schlemmer, B. Lipman, O. Garvin, H. Hafer, A. Benn.

Careful!
Hold It!

HUGHES girls, this year, contributed enthusiastically as ever to their favorite spring sport, ping-pong. Even in the early hours before school, the girls played furiously at their table tennis.

FRIDAY? Yes—the girls are waiting until the Hughes mermen leave the entrance to the boys' gym clear. Then they spend an hour in the pool where diving, racing, and life-saving are the main events. The girls shone in all inter-high school meets, and also in individual competition. Miss Nurre trains the swimmers.

SWIMMING TEAM

Standing: E. Daun, D. Heinemann, P. Putman.
Seated: V. Tozzer, C. Bailey, R. Renalds, S. Brezowski, R. Miller.

VIOLET SCHLEUTER, Gerda Benjak, Margaret Bonem, and Norma Wolf represent the girls' modern dance group. After working on technique and form all year, the girls enjoyed participating in a dance symposium at Walnut Hills High School.

TENNIS, as always, proved to be the popular spring activity. This year the advanced players among the girls batted away at Coy Field during the months of April and May. The beginners conscientiously practiced their strokes indoors in order to learn the technique of the game.

In picture: S. Brezowski, C. Kahle, E. Elberfeld, K. Alexander, P. Ballard.

BADMINTON IS POPULAR

When spring first steps around the corner, the gym is buzzing with lassies playing badminton and shuffleboard. The girls played individually in the regular tournament, elimination fashion. According to the enthusiasm displayed this year, badminton and shuffleboard are coming sports.

A stunt always enjoyed by the girls in their regular gym classes is the use of the parallel bars. It often looks quite easy to the onlooker, but upon trying to perform, one usually finds that she is not the contortionist she thought she was.

Ladders are a simple apparatus upon which many difficult stunts can be performed by those who persevere.

Many girls, this year, welcomed the call, "Play Ball," and happily gathered the equipment together for the trek down to Coy Field. Many participated, and in spite of sunburn and broken fingernails, there was keen competition.

This year, kickball had a happy return to the athletic curriculum for all grades. Although many participated in this simple game, several developed exceptional skill, and in class competition the proud seniors came in as victors: R. Hofmann, M. Hecker, D. Kistner, E. Hauck, A. Koeninger, W. Welsh.
